

STAFF CONCERNS

Any employee or group of employees believing there has been a violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of a Board policy and/or administrative rule may reduce his or her concern to writing and take it to the building principal or their immediate supervisor. If the concern is not resolved, the employee or group of employees may then file a concern with the superintendent and finally the Board.

APPROVED: November 13, 2006
REVISED: September 23, 2013