Letter from Superintendent Ryan Rieber

Preparation

During summer, I try to do my best to find time to sit and read and mentally recharge for the next school year. I wish that I was as a fanatic reader as my wife, Kim, who I am very envious of in how quickly she can read through a book, but that is not a strength of mine. However, I often look back at past books that I have enjoyed and learned from to try and make connections to where we have been or where we will be going as a school district. For myself, it doesn't take long after a school year or season concludes that I naturally start thinking about and preparing for the next one. I went back and reviewed the book The Servant by James C. Hunter. In this book, I found passages that I feel resonate with where we have been these past two years as a school district.

In a portion of the book the main character, John Daily is preparing to listen to a daily lesson. The conversation by the teacher involved change and continuous improvement. It went as follows, "Change takes us out of our comfort zone and forces us to do things differently, and that's hard. Challenges to our ideas force us to rethink our positions, and that's always uncomfortable. Rather than working through things and tolerating hard work and discomfort, many are content to stay forever stuck in their little ruts." Although there were uncomfortable moments and challenges over the past two years, I am proud that we did not stay "stuck in our little ruts."

A coach involved within this daily lesson commented that, "Continuous improvement is crucial for people as well as organizations because nothing stays the same in life. Nature shows us clearly that you are either alive and growing or you are dying, dead, or decaying." The teacher follows by stating, "Almost everyone buys into the idea of continuous improvement but by definition it is impossible to improve unless we change. It's those brave souls on the cutting edge who are challenging and asking the questions that will lead the way for others."

This portion of the book helped me to reflect on the past two years and how our district stands today as we prepare to start our first "normal" school year since August of 2019. I am so proud of the partnerships, cooperation, and conversations that we have had with our staff, school board, and community. These conversations were not always easy, but they were necessary conversations that helped us to change, rethink, and continuously improve for OUR KIDS! I feel that there is no better time to be a Panther than right now. We are set and preparing for an outstanding school year and we are so excited for our students and staff to refill our buildings and campus at the end of the month.

Over the past couple of weeks we have gotten the feel of this excitement through our summer school program, along with youth and high school athletic camps. It is a sure sign that the preparations for the school year are beginning. Fall co-curricular meetings are occurring in preparation for the upcoming fall seasons, and we are excited to begin these restriction-free.

As preparations begin, I want to thank all of those within the district that work behind the scenes. There is a lot of work accomplished while our students are not present in order to have our buildings ready for their return. This summer, some of those projects included a renovation of the Heider Center parking lot, adding a new parking lot between the Panther Den and our tennis courts, updating the flooring in the high school library, and painting and updating some flooring at the elementary school. Through the generosity of local donors and grant funding, we have teamed with a local contractor to have solar energy added to our middle school. There have been 288 solar panels installed to help conserve energy, lower rising energy costs, and to utilize as an education tool for our students. We are so appreciative of those that have given of their time, resources, and efforts along with our team here on campus in preparation for our students return on August 29th.

As we look forward to the upcoming school year, I want to thank all of our parents and residents of the West Salem School District for providing us the opportunity to work with your children, grandchildren, friends, and neighbors. We are successful because of your help and support. That dedication allows us to fill our buildings and classrooms with the best educators around! We all have a passion for working with our students, and I know that passion to serve our students, district, and community will be more apparent this year than ever before. We are fortunate here in West Salem, yet, we also know and want to keep the mindset of continuous improvement on the forefront of our thoughts and actions. Thank you West Salem! We are so excited to serve with passion and are looking forward to what is to come in the 2022-23 school year.

Thank you for all you do and your continued support!

Back on the Ice Age Trail

After a week of classes and practice hikes, seventeen of our 7th and 8th graders, along with Mr. Jones, Mr. Baker, Mrs. Olson, and several other volunteers, hiked 32 miles of the Ice Age Trail in northern Wisconsin this past week! They hiked about ten miles each day through all sorts of weather, including twelve bouts of rain and even some hail, but it didn't slow the group down at all! At their final destination, they had a campfire feast and celebrated all that had to be overcome throughout the hike!

To wrap things up, they stopped at Martino's Pizza in Stanley where they got a kitchen tour and were able to make their own individual pizzas! This trip is a great experience for our students, and many are already asking to come back again next year!

District Begins First Ever Solar Project

The district is very excited to have officially kicked off its first ever solar project! The project at West Salem Middle School began in July, where 288 panels are being installed across the rooftop. They will produce approximately 140,000 kW of energy in the first year of use, offsetting 22% of the building's energy costs. This project is made possible by a very generous anonymous donor, as well as grant funds received from The Midwest Renewable Energy Association's Solar on Schools program and the Hammond Climate Solutions' Solar Moonshot program out of San Diego, CA. Not only will the system help save on electrical costs and reduce the district's footprint, it will also offer several educational opportunities for our students to learn about solar energy, such as how the system operates, the cost savings, and the long-term impacts on district sustainability.

Outdoor Adventures at Summer School

Outdoor Education is one of the great enrichment classes being offered during summer school for our middle school students, and Mr. Brewer and Mr. Reader have been keeping the students busy with all sorts of fun outdoor activities! They began class by cycling so they could get to other places around the area quickly. They cycled on the La Crosse State Trail and a stop at Nick's Ice Cream Shop! They also did some frisbee golf on campus near the Panther Den, before moving on to paddle boarding at Lake Neshonoc!

We'd like to give a big thank you to Chris Randles of KayoeSUP, who generously donated his time and shared his expertise to help them learn how to paddle board! This was a great opportunity for our students and many of them picked it up quickly! Students will wrap up the class by learning and practicing some life-long leisure activities such as bocce ball, yard games, and more.

School District of West Salem

Annual Notices

At the beginning of each school year, school districts are required to publish certain annual notices. These are as follows:

Child Find & Referral Notice

Upon request, the School District of West Salem is required to evaluate a child for eligibility for special education services. A request for evaluation is known as a referral. When the district receives a referral, the district will appoint an Individualized Education Program (IEP) team to determine if the child has a disability, and if the child needs special education services. The district locates, identifies, and evaluates all children with disabilities who are enrolled by their parents in private (including religious) schools, elementary schools and secondary schools located in the school district.

A physician, nurse, psychologist, social worker, or administrator of a social agency who reasonably believes a child brought to him or her for services is a child with a disability has a legal duty to refer the child, including a homeless child, to the school district in which the child resides. Before referring the child, the person making the referral must inform the child's parent that the referral will be made.

Others, including parents, who reasonably believe a child is a child with a disability may also refer the child, including a homeless child, to the school district in which the child resides.

Referrals must be in writing and include the reason why the person believes the child is a child with a disability. A referral may be made by contacting Heidi Horton, Director of Pupil Services, School District of West Salem at (608)786-1064 or by writing her at 405 East Hamlin Street, West Salem, WI 54669.

Student Academic Standards

The West Salem School District has a commitment to excellence for all students. For the 2022-2023 school year, the district will adopt the Wisconsin State Standards for Math, English Language Arts, and Literacy; Next Generation Science Standards for Science; and Wisconsin Academic Standards or National Standards for all other content areas. When implementing the curriculum, educators use these standards to guide their instruction to provide all students with a guaranteed and viable curriculum.

Wisconsin Academic Standards

The Wisconsin Academic Standards are based on the National Common Core State Standards and are a consistent set of expectations for what students should know and be able to do in kindergarten through 12th grade.
